

VOICE

During the years 2011 – 2013 JTI Centre of Civic Education participates in an international project VOICE coordinated by Leibniz University (Hannover, Germany). There are nine partners altogether participating in the project. Next to the Leibniz University and mentioned above Jaan Tõnisson Institute there are Demokratiezentrum Wien (Austria), Centre for Citizenship Education (Slovenia), Srednja Trgovska Šola (Slovenia), Selcuk University (Turkey), Konya Provincial National Education Directorate (Turkey) participating in the project. Another partner from Estonia implementing the project is Tallinn English College.

The aim of the project is creating in the cooperation of the partners a study material about Europe. Interactive Civic Education material will be addressed to 14 – 16 years old students.

The homepage of the project: <http://www.voice-comenius.org/>

