

Project "Education, Culture and Local Self-government"

Arranged with the support of PHARE programme by the Civic Education Centre in 1977 training course was addressed to the advisors of culture and education in the newly elected local self-governments. A year lasting set of seminars offered during each event a discussion on different problems. For instance the issues of legislation concerning education and culture, regional policy, economy of the local self-governments and European Union were touched.

The project finalized with the conference for 100 people "Social Conditions and Social Policy of the Republic of Estonia". The package of conference materials was developed as the product of the project and it was delivered to the local self-governments of the country.
