

Seminar about the Holy Bible and Lutheran Faith

In 1997 was arranged a seminar on the issues of religion. The teachers, who now, after the collapse of communism have to teach among other new content areas about the religious topics, also, poorly know that particular area.

The two-day seminar offered to the participant's lectures about the essence of Protestantism, church history under the Soviet era, about religious music and arts, held by Lutheran church priests and art specialists.