

Translating into Estonian and adapting the US Standards for Civics and Government

In cooperation with the Civic Education Centre (Calabasas, USA) and supported by the Centre we translated into Estonian and adapted the US Standards for Civics and Government. The purpose of the translation is to offer an example how standards in Social Sciences could be compiled.

Working with the translation supports Estonian Civic educators in their daily practical work and fosters the wider publicity to understand better the essence of Civics.